

Self Expression and Leadership Programme Africa 2021 - Online

Express yourself fully, Make a difference, Be a leader

Each moment we have the opportunity to express ourselves and provide leadership—to make a difference, to contribute to the quality of life, to have an impact equal to what you see as possible. Expand your natural capacity for leadership and experience the difference you can make on a broader scale.

- ~ Find yourself expressing your thinking and ideas effectively in a way that calls forth the alignment, cooperation, and partnership of others.
- ~ Design a project and see your passion, commitment, and vision come alive.
- ~ Share yourself fully such that others relate to you from the new possibilities you've created.
- ~ Empower others in creating new possibilities in their lives and in making those possibilities happen.
